[In billions of dollars]

	Budget resolution ¹	Current level ²	Current level over/under (—) resolution
On-budget:
Budget Authority	1,996.6	1,999.7	3.1
Outlays	2,023.9	2,024.0	0.1
Revenues	1,483.7	1,484.1	0.4
Off-budget:
Social Security Outlays	398.1	398.1	0
Social Security Revenues	573.5	573.5	0

Note: * = less than $50 million.

¹ H. Con. Res. 95, the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2006, assumed the enactment of emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2005, in the amount of $81.8 billion in budget authority and $32.1 billion in outlays, which would be exempt from the enforcement of the budget resolution. Since current level excludes the emergency appropriations in P.L. 109–13 (see footnote 2 of Table 2), the budget authority and outlay totals specified in the budget resolution have also been reduced (by the amounts assumed for emergency supplemental appropriations) for purposes of comparison.

² Current level is the estimated effect on revenue and spending of all legislation that the Congress has enacted or sent to the President for his approval. In addition, full-year funding estimates under current law are included for entitlement and mandatory programs requiring annual appropriations even if the appropriations have not been made.

² Pursuant to section 402 of H. Con. Res. 95, the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2006, provisions designated as emergency requirements are exempt from enforcement of the budget resolution. As a result, the current level excludes: $83,140 million in budget authority and $33,034 million in outlays from the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for Defense, the Global War on Terror, and Tsunami Relief, 2005 (P.L. 109–13); $10,500 million in budget authority and $1,150 million in outlays from the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act to Meet Immediate Needs Arising From the Consequences of Hurricane Katrina, 2005 (P.L. 109–61); $51,800 million in budget authority and $125 million in outlays from the Second Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act to Meet Immediate Needs Arising From the Consequences of Hurricane Katrina, 2005 (P.L. 109–62); and $94 million in budget authority from the TANF Emergency Response and Recovery Act of 2005 (P.L. 109–68).

³ Excludes administrative expenses of the Social Security Administration, which are off-budget.

⁴ H. Con. Res. 95, the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2006, assumed the enactment of emergency supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2005, in the amount of $81,811 million in budget authority and $32,121 million in outlays, which would be exempt from the enforcement of the budget resolution. Since current level excludes the emergency appropriations in P.L. 109–13 (see footnote 2), the budget authority and outlay totals specified in the budget resolution have also been reduced (by the amounts assumed for emergency supplemental appropriations) for purposes of comparison.

Mr. President, 32 soldiers who were either from California or based in California have been killed while serving our country in Operation Enduring Freedom. I pray for these Americans and their families.

MONTANA'S PATRIOTS

Mr. BURNS. Mr. President, this week, I learned of another young person from Montana who had been killed in Iraq. PFC Andrew Bedard was only 19 and died Monday when the Humvee he was driving hit a roadside bomb.

Andrew Bedard was from Missoula and a 2004 graduate of Hellgate High School. He joined the Marine Corps shortly after graduation and had only finished basic training earlier this year in San Diego. He had been in Iraq for close to only one month, when his life ended because of another improvised explosive device, or "IED" while conducting combat operations against enemy forces in the Al Anbar province. The military had recently launched a new offensive against insurgents in western Iraq.

Those who knew him best describe Andrew as a personable, positive guy who was friends with most people he ran into and cared a great deal about his family and friends. I actually met Andrew a few years ago when he and I were involved in a fender bender in Missoula. He was courteous and respectful, and I can say that he was a fine young man.

Like me, Andrew was in the U.S. Marine Corps. If they can find solace in anything, his loved ones must know that his country is proud of his honorable service in upholding the freedoms and ideals which make this country great.

My heart and prayers go out to the Bedard family, as well as the loved ones of all others lost in this War on Terror. Private First Class Bedard, unfortunately, was the 13th man with Montana ties to die in Iraq or Afghanistan since 2001. Other Montanans who have been killed in combat in Operation Enduring Freedom/Iraqi Freedom are:

SPC Travis Arndt of Great Falls was the 12th man with Montana ties to lose his life in Iraq or Afghanistan.

Marine LCpl Nicholas Bloem of Bozeman was killed in Iraq on Aug. 3, the day after his 20th birthday, when a roadside bomb was exploded under his amphibious assault vehicle. He was one of 14 Marines killed from the Ohio-based 3rd Battalion, 25th Marine Division.

Marine Cpl Raleigh Smith, 21, of Troy was killed two days before Christmas 2004 by enemy fire in Fallujah, Iraq.

Marine LCpl Nathan R. Wood, 19, a Great Falls native who has moved to
